News of the Morning.

The Arago, at New York yesterday, brings later dates from Europe. Peace is restored between Prussia and Switzerland, while hostilities continue at Canton. The money market was improving and breadstuffs quiet.

We have also later advices from California and the Isthmus. The Fillibusters in Nicaragua seem to be effectually done for. Another revolution is announced in Chili. No special news of interest from other quarters.

Air Line Railroad to Fond du Lac.

In yesterday's Sentinel, we published an article from the Washington County Democrat, in relation to a change which was about taking place in the control of the Air Line Railroad from Milwaukee to Fond du Lac.

We learn from one of the Directors of that company, that arrangements have now been fully consummated by which that Road has passed into the hands of the Directors of the Milwaukee and Superior Railroad Company. The construction of the Road is to be commenced as soon as the necessary surveys can be made. The route will follow the Milwaukee and Superior Road for about 20 miles, and diverge thence to West Bend.

The liveliest interest is felt in this project along the whole line, and especially at West Bend and Fond du Lac. The company are assured of liberal subscriptions to the capital stock, and they have little doubt that they shall be able to complete the road to West Bend by the 1st of December. The Superior Road is expected to be in operation some 20 miles and upwards early next fall, and the distance of about 14 miles from the point of junction is all that will be required to secure this desirable result.

We are informed that iron sufficient to lay the track has been secured upon favorable terms.

The Milwaukee & Fond du Lac Air Line Road has always been regarded by our citizens with favor, and the prospect of its speedy construction, at a time when the business of the North has become equal in importance to that of any portion of the State, will be a subject of congratulation to every Milwaukeean.

The connection formed with the Milwaukee & Superior Road leaves but about 43 miles of separate road to be constructed, which, it is believed, can be accomplished within two years from this time, with proper effort—speed the work!

Our New Senator.

The News, of yesterday, parades sundry paragraphs from its exchanges, aimed at Judge DOOLITTLE, our U. S. Senator elect, and among them the following from the Albany Atlas and Argus:

> James R. Doolittle, formerly of this State, has been nominated by the Republican Caucus of Wisconsin, as Senator in the place of Dodge, whose term is to expire. The Milwaukee Sentinel (Whig) complains that in July last Mr. D. did not know which to support, Buchanan or Fremont.
> Mr. D. was in the same state of dubiety when he lived in this State; and though a free soil Democrat of the Buffalo platform school, was strongly inclined to go for Gen. Taylor, "without a proviso," with whom he was then in correspondence.

"The Milwaukee Sentinel" never said anything of the sort attributed to it; and we are in doubt whether to credit the News, or the Atlas with this "weak invention." As to the rest of the Atlas diatribe, it is well and promptly answered by the Albany Evening Journal. We copy the reply, as the "antidote" to the News and Atlas "bane:"

> The Atlas hasn't the prudence to hide its mortification at the gradual decay of the Slave Power in the Senate. The difficulty of doing so is doubly enhanced when the selected representatives of Freedom are taken from among those who were once the political friends of that journal. Their triumph is a condemnation of its abandonment of principles. And it is, because they have been true, where it has been false that is not so vindictive toward whoever has refused to imitate or laud its treason.
>
> Mr. Doolittle is one of these. He acted with the Atlas in '48. But he has not, like the Atlas, ignored the "corner stone," nor become the servile tool of the power which it then combatted. The doctrines of which he was the eloquent champion in '48, he is chosen as the honored representative now. He has won the distinction of the Federal Senatorial office by his fidelity. The Atlas has reached its low depth of humiliation by its treason. It dislikes whatever reminds it of the past, and hates whoever stands upon a Platform which itself aided to construct but from which it has since shamefully fallen.
> Those who know him best will most rejoice at the success of James R. Doolittle. Educated in the pure atmosphere of Western New York, early imbued with an ardent love for Freedom, and having grown strong, with his years, in the faith of "the fathers," he will take rank, in the Senate of the United States, with the truest and ablest defenders of the principles once professed, but now repudiated by the Atlas.

CONTESTED SEAT.—Capt. Markland, who was the Democratic candidate for Assembly, and who was elected by 13 majority, arrived in town yesterday, to take his seat; but found it already occupied by one Geo. Strong, notwithstanding the Captain had the certificate of election in his pocket, and had not before heard any question of his election.

> The circumstances are like this, as we understand them:
> Mr. Strong, upon ascertaining the vote in the counties of Polk and St. Croix, and that he had a majority of such votes, by some process obtained a certificate of election, and posted off to this city, without waiting to ascertain the result in the whole district. The canvass of the remaining counties of La Pointe, Douglass and Burnett, showed Capt. Markland to be elected, as above stated, and he has the proper papers to show.—Madison Argus, Jan. 27.

The Argus proceeds to say that the Assembly rejected a motion to refer this case to a Select Committee, and sent it to the Standing Committee on Privileges and Elections, whence the Argus infers that the Republican majority do not intend to show Capt. MARKLAND "fair play."—We draw precisely the opposite conclusion.—Undoubtedly the reference made by the Assembly was the proper one, and if the facts are as stated by the Argus, there will not, as there should not be, a moment's hesitation in giving Capt. MARKLAND his seat.

THE AIR LINE RAIL ROAD TO FOND DU LAC.—The article on this subject in yesterday's Sentinel should have been credited to the Washington County (West Bend) Democrat. We earnestly hope that the anticipations of our Washington County cotemporary, as to the resumption and speedy completion of this important enterprise, may be verified to the letter.

MILWAUKEE & HORICON RAIL ROAD.—The people along the line of this important thoroughfare, between Berlin and Stevens Point, are subscribing to its stock with a liberality and promptness deserving of all praise. The Stevens Point Pinery of the 22d inst. says:

> We had a visit yesterday from Messrs. Richards & Bowen, Directors of the Milwaukee and Horicon R. R. The subscriptions to stock, seem to be just begun here. This vicinity will very likely take to the amount of a million of dollars before the season expires.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Times, who refuses to testify to such facts as the Committee desire, says that nevertheless, there are already ample facts before the committee to justify an investigation.

Wisconsin Banks and Currency.

The Detroit Daily Advertiser of Monday last contains the following paragraph:

> ☞ By the latest Milwaukee papers, we perceive that there is not the slightest feeling in that city concerning the currency of the Wisconsin banks. The only paragraph relating to money matters, in the Sentinel of Tuesday, is the following:
>
> Money is very stringent, and some uneasiness felt about Illinois currency. Business is good for the season, but collections slow and difficult, and failures more frequent than agreeable.
> We think our brokers have cried "wolf" about often enough.

We gather, from similar givings-out in the Cincinnati papers, that there too, the Brokers have raised the cry of "wolf" whenever they were offered a Wisconsin bill. No doubt they find their profit in this game, as the money being perfectly good, whatever shave they exact is so much clear gain. The public, however, should their general condition, as shown by the Comptrol- know that this cry of "wolf" is a false alarm.—Our Wisconsin Banks are prudently managed; ler's recent report, is very sound; and their issues are secured by the deposit of State Stocks in the Comptroller's hands. They have passed thro' several trying seasons, and have profited by the experience thus acquired; and the outstanding currency of one or two of the smallest banks, which could not weather the financial crisis, was all redeemed without loss to the bill holders.—Under these circumstances the cry of "wolf," set up by the money changers, ought to find no credence among sensible business men in Detroit, or elsewhere.

ILLINOIS MONEY.—The Chicago papers of yesterday announce that the Prairie State Bank, which was discredited, has made arrangements with the Marine Bank, of that city, for the redemption of its notes, which will be taken at par by that institution. Its bills are therefore current again. The brokers, here and at Chicago, who have been buying up the bills at 20 per cent. discount for a few days past, made a good thing of it.

As to the other discredited Banks, the Chicago Democrat of yesterday says:

> Persons holding the notes of any of the Illinois doubtful banks should not be led to sacrifice them by designing parties. We notice that Missouri Bonds have gone up to 87 cents in New York. This should make the notes of every doubtful bank worth their face.
>
> We notice that the People's Bank of Carmi has virtually suspended. This will make no difference in the value of its notes, however, as funds are in the hands of the Auditor sufficient to redeem them.

For the Sentinel.

Railroad Detentions.

MESSRS EDITORS:—In your issue of the 27th of January, "Free Pass," in reply to M. J. Thomas, of the Fond du Lac Union, says "the Chicago, St. Paul & Fond du Lac R. R. has been from 4 to 6 days without trains, and at this time has ceased to take either freight or passengers."

It is obvious that the Union refers to the Northern Division, running into Fond du Lac.

Such being the case, I feel it but just to state that there has been only one day this winter, but what the trains on the Northern Division have promptly made their time as demanded by Time Table, and now are running regularly. Neither have they lost but three connections at the La Crosse Junction since last April.

OBSERVER.

"DISUNION" SENTIMENTS.—While many of the papers are sharply censuring the Convention of fanatics, who recently amused themselves by meeting at Worcester, Massachusetts, to inquire into the expediency of dissolving the Union, a kindred set of extremists at Cleveland, Ohio, are permitted to go "unwhipt of justice." We allude to the "Bachelor Barristers" of that city, who, but a few days since, went off for a sleigh-ride and supper, by themselves, and then and there uttered, in the shape of toasts, the following treasonable opinions:

> 1st. The President elect of the United States. —The first from the illustrious order of B. B.'s.
>
> 2d The "Bachelor Barristers" of the Cleveland Bar—Unterrified by "eyes"—invincible to "arms"—we meet to "celebrate."
>
> 5th. Bachelor Barristers—Whenever they go to "court" with an "attachment suit" on hand, may their "pleadings" never be "demurred" to, or their suits dismissed with prejudice.
>
> 6th. The case of Single Blessedness vs. Love in the Cottage.
>
> 7th True Friendship—Unknown except to men.
>
> 9th. Our Future "Fathers in-Law"—Where are they?
>
> 10th. Domestic Relations—Another name for the halter.
>
> 11th. The Critic's Pen—Its widest field Woman.
>
> 12th. Woman's Rights—An alarming feature of the day, and we frown upon the movement.
>
> 14th.—Woman's Helplessness—We "demur to the pleadings."
>
> 16th. The Press—The true conservator of our free institutions; the only kind of "press" tolerated by bachelors.
>
> The following toasts were then volunteered:
>
> 1st. The Hen Pecked Husband—"Ye who who have tears to shed prepare to shed them now."
>
> 2d. "Matches are made in Heaven"—We admit the adage but deny the authority.
>
> 4th. The Married Man—"The victim of false pretences."

Such sentiments deserve no mercy. We turn over the culprits to the first "Woman's Rights Convention" that meets and will take jurisdiction of the offence.

LAKES ERIE AND MICHIGAN IN WINTER.—Lake Erie is now one vast field of ice as far as the eye can reach, from shore to shore. Along the shore the ice is fine, smooth and solid, and covered at all practicable hours with troops of skaters, while farther away it is covered with a snowy crust upon which skaters never venture.

Lake Michigan, on the contrary, spurns the fetters of the Frost-King. There is no ice to be seen on its broad expanse, save just along the shore. And severe and continued as has been the cold of this Winter, the access to our Harbor has not been closed.

AN ACTIVE GOVERNOR.—William A. Newell was to be inaugurated Governor of New Jersey on Tuesday week. On Monday he found that the snow had interrupted all communication between his residence and the capital. On Monday afternoon, the roads being in such a condition as to forbid the use of either sleighs or horses, he walked the whole distance (twelve miles,) arriving at Trenton just in time to receive the robes of office.

EFFECTS OF THE COLD.—From the London Free Press, we learn that one of the effects of the recent cold weather has been to disable twenty-seven of the locomotives belonging to the Great Western Railway. The employees have suffered severely.

PRETTY GOOD.—The Boston correspondent of the New York Post conceives that the Disunion Convention at Worcester, was held during the great snow storm, on account of its being a feasible time to "let the Union slide."

FIRE IN CHICAGO.—The Dry Goods Store of Mr. John Baylon, the Shoe Store of Mr. E. W. Chichester, and the Music Store of W. G. Green, on Lake Street, nearly opposite the Tremont House, Chicago, were destroyed by fire Tuesday night. Loss $15,000 or $20,000, on which there is only a partial insurance.

WEATHER AND TIMES AT STEVENS POINT.—By the following extract from the Stevens Point Pinery of the 22nd inst, it will be seen that there is a close match between Jack Frost and the money market there, as to which pinches the hardest. With the mercury at 42 degrees below zero, and money at 10 per cent. a month, we don't wonder that people in the Pineries "take to the woods" and postpone pay-day till "the logs come down."

> ☞ The cold weather was intensified here on the morning of the 18th, when the mercury sunk to the congealing point, forty-two degrees below zero! It stood 39 below on the morning of the 19th. A slight fall of snow on the 20th.
>
> Produce coming in moderately; prices firm and advancing, especially on Pork. Flour at a stand.
>
> Our money market is tight:—say ten per cent a month, secured by judgment notes at 30 days with two or three good endorsers! and none to be got at that! Never mind; the logs are coming soon.

Lake Superior Items.

We are in receipt of the Lake Superior Miner of January 10th (pretty good time for mid-winter) and are quite gratified to find that our hyperborean neighbours are getting comfortably thro' the season of snows. We clip sundry items from the Miner:

> ☞ The first large private party of the season came off on Thursday evening last. It was quite a brilliant affair, got up with admirable taste, arrangement and care for the enjoyment of the guests, and passed off delightfully.
>
> LAKE SUPERIOR STOCK.—A hog was killed in this village a few days since that weighed 510 lbs, and was sold at 14 cents per lb, bringing the amount of $71,41 cents.
>
> ☞ An over-land mail from Green Bay, via Marquette, arrived on Wednesday, the 7th ult. Also, one from Superior and La Point, bringing dates from below up to December the 10th inst.
> WEATHER.—Old Boreas & Co., have settled their accounts with the close of last year, and our clear fine winter days have only been interrupted for a few days since New Year by a call of old Mr. Boreas himself, which was received with as much coldness as it was given. Since then we have had calm, bright and cold weather, and as the days are bright so are our nights illuminated with the brilliancy and splendor which is peculiar to the climate of the Northwest. The temperature in December was comparatively mild, since the 1st of January it has remained about zero, and the coldest night since and of this winter was 8 deg. below zero. We hope the cold weather will continue to enable our harbor company to go on with their work, which has been long detained by the mildness of the weather.

The Miner contains notices of religious services at Catholic, Methodist, Presbyterian and Episcopalian Churches, and publishes calls for meetings of Odd Fellows and Masonic Lodges, of a Philharmonic Society and of a Young Men's Society. Evidently ONTONAGON is alive and keeps moving, even in the midst of winter.

The Miner looks forward hopefully to early Rail Road connections with Wisconsin, and likes the disposition made by our Legislature of the North-East Land Grant. It desires also to see a road built from Copper Harbor, thro' the heart of the Mining District, between the branches of the Ontonagon River, past Lake Vieux Desert, to the head waters of the Wisconsin, and thence, down that stream, to the settlements. A glance at the map will show that this is a very direct route and central to the whole mining region.—The Miner adds that it would combine the entire copper interests by the shortest route, and reach the Wisconsin settlements by the most direct line. This road, of course, would connect at Stevens' Point with the Milwaukee and Horicon Rail Road. The Miner concludes thus:

> There is at the present time a strong movement in the Upper Wisconsin, which looks to the ultimate accomplishment of so much of it as relates to the line between this place and Stevens Point. There are fine pineries on Eagle river, which is the main and most northerly branch of the Wisconsin. There is now a strong probability that a line of railroad will before long be extended from that part of the State which lies just below our southern boundary, to Wausau and Stevens Point. A wagon road will undoubtedly be made, very soon, to the state line, which is only about fifty miles from the mineral range.
>
> Such a road will be of immense service in the construction of the Wisconsin and Superior Railroad, and it will give us greatly increased facilities for regular mail communication.
> The citizens of Wisconsin are strong and energetic men. They have invested a large amount of capital in the lumbering business, the importance of which is increasing every day, as the country south of them fills up. And we believe they fully appreciate the importance of a connection with the copper region.

Wisconsin Senator.

We are pleased to record the fact of the nomination of Judge Doolittle for U. S. Senator by the Republicans of the Wisconsin Legislature. Judge D. is a worthy scion of the Radical Democracy of New York. His first appearance in public life was at the notorious Empire Hall Convention, held in September, 1847, which continued from Wednesday noon until "the small hours" of Sunday morning and ended in a general melee, without however, any broken noses. Preston King, George P. Barker, John Van Buren, Judge Doolittle, and George Rathbun were the leading spirits of that body, on the "Barnburner" side. Mr. D. made one or two able and eloquent speeches, which at once gave him a decided prominence in politics. The "Hunkers" had much less talent in the Convention, but in point of numbers they had the ascendency. James T. Brady was their principal reliance, and it was the universal opinion that he "acted well his part." John Van Buren and all the other "Barnburners," whose seats were contested, were ousted from the Convention and "Hunkers" substituted. John's case was not decided until after the lapse of three days—the same time he remarked as "Jonah was in the whale's belly." But he was subsequently admitted to the "Bolter's Convention" at Herkimer, without objection, where he addressed his "Fellow Traitors" in a speech, the ring of which was heard throughout the Union, and which foreshadowed the defeat of the Democratic party of the country in the following year.—Judge Doolittle subsequently removed to Wisconsin, where he was soon elevated to the Bench, from which he has been removed to a higher and wider sphere of usefulness. We rejoice at his success, in the well grounded belief that he will wear his new honors with credit to himself and advantage to his adopted State.—Syracuse (N. Y.) Standard.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—Mr. William Burton, was frozen to death on the night of the 17th inst., near the North shore of Lake Poygan. Mr. Burton had been to Menasha, taking out pre-emption papers and was on his return home; and walked a long distance during the day, and was much fatigued when he left a house on the South shore of the Lake, about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The distance across the Lake is about four miles. He was found on Sunday morning in a deserted shanty near the Lake shore. The deceased was an unmarried man, an Englishman by birth, about 32 years of age, has no relatives in this country; has two sisters in England. Mr. B. was in the employ of Mr. Freer of Blooomfield Waushara County and was an industrious, sober man.

ANOTHER.—A Mr. Snell, of Bloomfield, Waushara County, was frozen to death on the night of the 8th instant. The deceased, in company with a brother, had been to a settlement on Pine River on business; on their return they became intoxicated, and deceased by some means got out of the sleigh, and not having sufficient strength to get home, lay down and was frozen to death. He leaves a wife and three children.—Oshkosh Courier, Jan 26.

ATROCIOUS MURDER.—About half past ten o' clock, yesterday, Henry Epler, in the employ of Moore, Severance & Co., at their packing house on the river, in South Chicago, was fatally stabbed by a fellow workman named Michael Mack.—The parties are both young men, the former a German and the latter Irish, and were, with several others, at work in the packing house, when there passed between them some words, which from their tone or language would have attracted no attention from the bystanders, and apparently as the result of the altercation, Mack sprang towards Epler, who turned away, when Mack plunged the large keen knife he had been using at his bench, into the right side of his back, just below the ribs, inflicting a deep and ghastly wound. The unfortunate man fell to the floor, covered with blood. His murderer turned to his bench, laid down his knife, took from the wall, near by, his coat, and left the house and starting into a run went south along the river bank.

It seems singular, and is as yet unaccounted for, that he should have been allowed thus to make his escape, as there were twenty or more men in and about the building. Probably the startling atrocity of the act prevented the prompt decision which might easily have secured the murderer.—Chicago Dem. Press, Jan. 28.

The Ship Resolute—An Era of Good Feeling.

LONDON, Dec. 30. 1856.

Nothing can be more gratifying than the good feeling which has been created in this country by the beautiful compliment of the American Government in returning the Resolute as a present to the Queen. The United States stand one hundred per cent higher in English estimation than they have done since the Revolution. In fact America is in everybody's mouth, and we are pronounced a nation of noble hearts and generous sympathies. The Queen has commanded for her private gallery a picture of her reception on board the Resolute, as a memorial of what is termed "a most noble act of international courtesy." The picture will include portraits of the various members of the Royal family, and of Capt. Hartstein and the American officers who accompanied him. Punch has an engraving representing the presentation, headed "Britannia and Jonathan—Mother and child doing well." Jonathan is in the act of handing over the Resolute to Britania, while Punch pats him on the back, and exclaims, "That's a good boy! His heart's in the right place," Britania wishes Jonathan "a merry Christmas and many happy new years."

LOSS OF THE BRIG EMELINE!

Captain and Crew all Lost

TERRIBLE SCENES.

The particulars of the loss of the Emiline we have procured from a gentleman who arrived from the beach last evening, being the first person from that quarter since Saturday last.

About 8 o'clock on Sunday morning, while Capt. Haggerty, the host of the Ocean House, was quietly sipping his coffee, and wondering when the N. N. E. storm was going to cease, he looked out seaward, and espied the upper part of a brig heading for the beach. As yet her hull was hidden from sight, but he could see that she was crippled in her spars, and as he thought in a very sad plight. Soon her hull loomed up, and he could see that it was evidently the intention of her captain to run her ashore, because with the wind that was then blowing she might have been kept off without much difficulty. So he came to the conclusion that she was disabled in her rigging and leaky, and the pumps being probably frozen, and the men worn out with toil and exposure, her captain had determined to resort to the last chance for saving the lives of himself and crew. On she came, staggering and slow, as if unwilling to lay her bones on the beach like an old hulk, after the brave services which she had done.

On she came, nearer and nearer; the stout Captain left his comfortable abode and ran down toward the beach, while the women-folk crowded to the door in breathless suspense to watch the impending catastrophe. On she came, nearer yet, till the faces of her crew could be seen, pale and ghastly, from the shore. The white breakers leap and roar eagerly to the fatal embrace; as her prow parts the milky foam every man cried "God help us!" and held firmly to the frozen rigging. Another moment and she has struck the beach, and the sea is breaking wildly over her decks.

Three miles off, these events had been observed by Edward Wardle, the Underwriters' agent and keeper of the life saving apparatus, who, leaving orders for his trusty crew to follow with surf-boats, life-cars, cables and mortars, jumped into his wagon and dashed off to the wreck. Twenty minutes after she struck, he was on the beach near her. She lay head on shore, some seventy or eighty yards from the beach, the sea breaking over her starboard side. There were only six men to be seen on board. Whether any others were lying in their bunks below, frost-bitten, and unable to crawl up, may never be known. The main sail was half set and the sailors getting under the lee of it, were for a while somewhat sheltered from the storm. Capt. Haggerty thought that if they had launched their boat over the lee rail as soon as the brig struck, they might have got safely ashore; but they seemed physically incapable of exertion. Probably they were frostbitten, or had not strength enough left to launch the boat, and very soon it was too late; for, as our informant graphically described it, "the storm came on heavy enough to blow the oars out of their row-locks."

To launch a boat from the beach in such a gale was impossible, and as soon as the mortar arrived Mr. Wardle shot a line over the brig's rigging. The poor fellows cheered a feeble cheer, but it was almost dismal enough for a groan, and one of them tried to clamber up the icy ratlines to catch it. He was evidently too much benumbed, and the attempt was abandoned. Another and another line was thrown over her by Mr. Wardle, but they were to far gone to help themselves.—Five lines were fired at various elevations across the brig, but none of them was of any use to the doomed men. It was a terrible storm, the wind driving the sea in huge waves over the vessel, and hailing torrents of sharp sand and pebbles into the faces and eyes of the wreckers on shore. Soon the mainsail gave way, and the sea swept the deck. Some of the men took to the rigging; others went down into the cabin and one crept upon his belly out upon the bowsprit. Too feeble to help themselves, they looked for aid to the men on shore, and occasionally raised a feeble shout; but they had done all that was possible for their assistance. If the men on the brig had only been able to haul the hawsers out, the life-car could have been sent off to them, and they might have been saved. How painfully the wreckers watched their motions—how imploringly the poor fellows looked toward the shore. Presently those in the cabin crawled on deck again, and another man tried to reach the friendly rope. He too failed. As the tide rose the wreckers drew back their surfboat and the men on the brig, thinking they were about to desert them set up a wild wail that was heard high above the crash of the storm. Mr. Wardle made signs that he intended to stay by them, and the assurance seemed to cheer them a little. In a little while the man on the bowsprit moved down the deck and throwing over the top of the galley or something very like it, leaped into the sea after it. After buffeting the waves for awhile he againsd the raft, but it was held fast by a line which he had not seen, to the vessel. Full fifteen minutes he clung to the float, and the men on shore could see it turn over and over in the boiling waves. Occasionally, only the feet of the man were visible, but he held bravely on until the line parted. The raft then came towards the beach, the man still on it, and the wreckers crowded down as close as they could to the water to save him. Their humane intentions were defeated, for just as the shipwrecked man was all but within their grasp, the waves dashed him against a high ledge of ice, which projected from the shore, and they saw him no more. As the day wore on the storm waxed fiercer, and the cold grew more intense, it was evident that no human aid could reach the mariners. Three of them returned to the cabin, and were never seen to come out of it again.

A fourth, a young and slender man with black hair and beard, lashed himself along the lee-rail directly under the chain plates, and laid his head over on the outside, as if to protect it from the salt water. The fifth man ascended the rigging, which had now become heavily incrusted with ice, and held on for a long time.

In their exposed situation on the beach most of the wreckers were badly frost bitten in the faces, feet and ears. Several of them were so badly frozen that they were obliged to be driven home at once to save their lives, and others came out to serve in their places. About four o'clock in the afternoon the man in the rigging loosed his hold and fell backward, dead, on the deck. The young man lashed to the rail was also insensible or dead, for he had made no motion for several hours; so the wreckers, having done all that they could, secured their implements, and with heavy hearts wended their way homeward.—N. Y. Tribune, Jan. 23.

From the Watertown Democrat.

Oconomowoc Female Seminary.

D. W. BALLOU, JR.:—Are you, and the other friends of Female Education in this new State, aware that in that flourishing village, Oconomowoc—so pleasantly located between two lakes—there is an institution where are offered the very best advantages for moral and intellectual training, and where everything that is taught in our best Female Seminaries at the east, can be learned under the most favorable auspices, from the best of teachers. I have often visited the school in question—the "Oconomowoc Female Seminary"—and have, from time to time, been thrown in company with its inmates—both teachers and scholars.

Though it is yet in its infancy, having been in existence but a few months, yet there has been the most marked improvement in the young ladies who have attended it during the brief period.

In fact, the entire management of it is admirable. While everything is done in the family of the Principal to render the stay of pupils pleasant, such a truly parental care is exercised over them in regard to manners and morals; such kindly attention paid to the preservation of their health, and such prudent care taken of them when sick, as must commend it most strongly to the favorable regard of all acquainted with the facts.

While the Principals, Mrs. Mason and her daughters, by their familiarity with the more solid branches of learning, as well as with the more elegant accomplishments, are a host within themselves, they are assisted by the Rector, the Rev. Mr. Davis—than whom, if I may judge, few are more competent to teach, both from his knowledge of the branches taught, and from his happy faculty of enlisting the interest and attention of pupils, and imparting instruction in the most engaging and profitable manner.

Such an institution as this, under the patronage of the Episcopal Church as it is, and subject to the supervision of the Bishop of the Diocese, should most certainly enlist in its behalf the warm sympathies of all the friends of education in that denomination; while all, of whatever sect, can feel assured that they may place their children in Mrs. Mason's family without apprehension that aught will be done to induce them to swerve from the peculiar denominational tenets in which they have been educated.

INDIAN TROUBLES ON THE ST. CROIX.—The Sioux Indians having become numerous and troublesome on the St. Croix, above Stillwater, a meeting of settlers was held at Marine Mills recently, to devise means for protection. It was resolved to appeal to the authorities to remove, and if it was not done to drive them out by force of arms. We saw Dr. Huebschmann a few days ago, on his way to Milwaukee, who informed us that he had requested the commandant at Fort Snelling to send over two or three sleigh loads of soldiers to frighten them away, but as he had no authority to order the commandant to do so, it was doubtful whether this step would be taken. Dr. Huebschmann is an energetic and sagacious Superintendent of Indian affairs, but the government does not invest him with power to execute punishment upon the savages for infraction of treaties, as some suppose. If all Superintendents were like him, it would be well for Congress to legislate greater powers into their hands.—Prescott (Pierce Co.) Transcript.

Assassination of the Archbishop of Paris—The Particulars.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times gives the following particulars of the assassination of the Archbishop:

PARIS, Sunday, 6 P. M.

The Archbishop of Paris was assassinated at 5½ o'clock last evening, in the ancient church of St. Etienne du Mont, while officiating pontifically at the novena in honor of the festival of Sainte Genevieve, the patroness of Paris. The relics of the saint are said to be kept in that church since the destruction of that which had been dedicated to her; and on the 3d of January, the anniversary of her death, a solemn novena or nine days' devotions, prayers, masses, and other acts of piety, and which from its celebrity attracts crowds of people, is regularly celebrated there. After vespers and a sermon, which was preached by the Abbe Lacarriere, the procession of the lady patronesses of Sainte Genevieve took place. The Archbishop presided, as he had at the religious ceremonies during the day. As he was passing the outer door, to enter the principal nave, a young man, apparently about 30 years of age, suddenly advanced and stabbed the prelate in the direction of the heart. The victim retreated two steps back—his crozier fell from his hand—and, exclaiming "Ah, malheureux!" sink to the earth. He was carried dying to the sacristy. The body was borne to the Archiepiscopal Palace, in the Rue Grenelle St. Germain, at 8 o'clock.

The assassin's name is Verges. He was a priest of the diocese of Meaux, and had been several times suspended from the exercise of his functions. He made himself known some short time since by a violent pamphlet against the Procureur-Imperial (the law officer of the crown of St. Leon, Department of the Aisne. He was proceeded against and condemned to punishment. He also incurred for this pamphlet the censure of his ecclesiastical superiors, and particularly of the Archbishop. He is said likewise to have been suspended from his functions for having preached against the dogma of the "Immaculate Conception." It was in consequence of the last suspension that he came to Paris, where he first meditated the crime which he has just perpetrated. A Sister of Charity who had observed the movement of the assassin and attempted to throw herself between the Archbishop and him, was wounded in the hand.

The assassin made an attempt to escape in the crowd, but he was seized by five or six of the congregation, and narrowly escaped being strangled by them. In his examination before the authorities he answered coolly. He says he was suspended without just cause.

Some time since he affixed a placard to the gates of the Madeleine, complaining of his punishment by the Archbishop, and stating that he was perishing of hunger. He had already been pointed out to the police for having threatened one of the most respectable parish priests in Paris, but he never said that he entertained any evil designs against the Archbishop. He came to Paris on Christmas eve, and lodged at No. 2 Rue Racine. He has passed his time since then in reading at the public libraries. He was dressed as a layman, and his paletot was stuffed with writings.

The following notice has been posted on the doors of the St. Etienne du Mont:

"Monseigneur the Archbishop having been stabbed to death at 5 o'clock this afternoon, by a criminal hand in the Church of St. Etienne du Mont, the Church remains under an interdict until the expiatory ceremony which shall be subsequently commenced."

To-day the outside of the Church of St. Etienne du Mont is hung with black cloth. No high mass has been chanted to-day in any Church throughout the diocese of Paris. In its place a low mass was celebrated, after which the clergy sang the seven penitential psalms.

The Metropolitan Chapter has already met for receiving the official notification of the death of the Archbishop, and for taking measures for the administration of the diocese until a successor be appointed. The body of the deceased will be laid out in State, arrayed in his pontifical robes, in a chappelle ardente of the Archiepiscopal Palace, immediately after the embalming. The Church of St. Etienne du Mont is placed under interdict by the fact of the crime having been committed there, and it will not be opened until it is purified by an expiatory ceremony.

The general opinion is, that the assassin is deranged in mind, and has been so for some time past. He was in the insurrection of June, and then also received the murdered prelate in his arms. The late Archbishop (Marie Dominique Auguste Sibour) was born in 1791, in the diocese of Valence (Tarn et Garonne.)

COUNTY JUDGE.—We are pleased to learn of the appointment by the Governor, of A. P. Hodges Esq., of this City, to the office of County Judge for Winnebago County, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the Hon. D. C. Blodgett.

Mr. Hodges is a gentlemen, and a man of an ordinary legal ability, and we congratulate the executive upon the excellence of this appointment.—Oshkosh Democrat.

Grace Greenwood's First.

Ah, well! 'tis over! Should I not resign
My weaker will to Fate's imperious shall?
'Tis not a boy! yet, such as 'tis, 'tis mine;
Then let me, thankful, murmur, c'est égal!

DIED.

In this city, on Tuesday, Jan. 27, at 8 o'clock P. M., of Apoplexy, Capt. FRANCIS L. K. RUSSELL, late of the Regiment of Mounted Rifles, U. S. Army, (son of the late Capt. Samuel L. Russell, late of the Second Regiment of Infantry, U. S. A., who fell in action with the Seminoles in Florida, in 1839, (while gallantly leading his command,) aged 81 years. Funeral from Arcade Buildings, East Water Street, at 2 P. M. to-day.

The deceased was engaged in all the actions under Gen. SCOTT, from Vera Cruz to the city of Mexico; and having distinguished himself as a brave and gallant officer, was recommended, in general orders, by Gen. Scott, and received a Brevet Captaincy, particularly for gallantry at Chapultepec. He came to this city in the month of November last, with a design to make it his future home. He was a gentleman of cultivated and refined intellect—courteous and affable in his manners—an agreeable companion and honorable man. With such qualities he very readily made the acquaintance of many of our citizens, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was a brave and generous man, and one who has done his country service. Those who have enjoyed his acquaintance will long remember him for his genial and sterling qualities, while his relatives and more immediate friends will deeply mourn the sudden loss of one who possessed so many endearing traits of character.—COMMUNICATED.

COMMERCIAL.

THE MARKETS, &c.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
Milwaukee January 29, 1857.

Received by Mil. & Miss. R. R.—8,205 bu wheat, 50 bbls flour, 1,932 bu corn, 269 do barley, 3 do oats, 241 hogs, 195 hides, 32 bdls pelts, 25 do brooms.

By LaCrosse & Milwaukee R. R.—58 bbls flour, 3,040 bu wheat, 453 do barley, 24 hides, 226 pelts, 14,612 lbs sundries.

Watertown Division—209 bbls flour, 306 bus. wheat, 8 sacks flour, 8,985 lbs sundries.

Freight trains are running once more and receipts of produce are increasing rapidly. The market, however, has not yet recovered its wonted activity; scarcity of money operating, perhaps, to check transactions. We note moderate sales at our quotations:

WHEAT—inactive, 90a94 for Club, 31 00a1 10 for Winter.

RYE—firm, 65a70.

BARLEY—in request, 1,30a1,45.

OATS quiet—35a38.

CORN—dull, 50a52.

POTATOES—in fair request, 62½a75.

PORK—steady, $8a8,50.

BUTTER—16a20c.

EGGS—15 cents.

Another very fine winter day, yesterday.

Earnings of the M. & M. Railroad.

The gross earnings of the Milwaukee & Mississippi Railroad for each month of the past three years, are thus given in the report of the Superintendent, the President and Directors of the Company:

	1854	1855	1856
January,	$28,224 59	$33 247 06	$20,559 02
February,	26 192 83	26 596 09	29,531 64
March,	20,773 95	33,155 23	30,568 86
April,	15,814 45	33,005 53	35,524 83
May,	41,351 81	36,944 16	61,867 89
June,	43,164 90	35,127 68	63,020 12
July,	35,555 84	47,158 14	68,050 69
August,	32,824 06	55,695 51	56,564 62
September,	60,168 64	57,754 93	92,526 90
October,	66,875 81	112,163 41	120,146 52
November,	55,189 96	84,152 91	55,179 18
December,	25,375 45	49,855 05	38,418 60
	$465,031 19	$691,548 94	$650,472 45

The large falling off in receipts, in November and December last, was attributable to the sudden decline in prices in the former month and the severe snow storms and cold in the latter. But for these drawbacks the aggregate receipts for 1856 would have reached $750,000.

The amounts of freight moved over the road for the three years, compare as follows:

	1854	1855	1856
Tonnage going East,	62,926	81,720	63,216
" " West,	48,127	81,234	90,331
Aggregate.	112,053	162,954	163,547

The same explanation that is given for a decline in the earnings of last year, may be applied to the deficiency in freight from the West.

The coming season will show a very large increase in the Freight and Passenger traffic of this road.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.

There is but little doing in the Grain or Produce market. No freight trains for two or three days on the Galena road, and only some 4,000 bu wheat yesterday by the other roads, which covers nearly all the grain received. Only 300 to 400 head of hogs have come in per day also, which, however, about supplies the present limited demand at previous quotations. Money continues close and Exchange on New York scarcely to be had, except at unusually high rates. One dealer to-day was enabled to get $10,000 in exchange at 2 per cent premium, by picking it up in small amounts at different places.

FLOUR—Extra winter wheat $5 50a5 75; extra spring wh at 4 75a5 25.

CORN also closed with an advancing tendency—mixed is quoted at $1 10.

News of the Morning.

The Arago, at New York yesterday, brings later dates from Europe. Peace is restored between Prussia and Switzerland, while hostilities continue at Canton. The money market was improving and breadstuffs quiet.

We have also later advices from California and the Isthmus. The Fillibusters in Nicaragua seem to be effectually done for. Another revolution is announced in Chili. No special news of interest from other quarters.

Air Line Railroad to Fond du Lac.

In yesterday's Sentinel, we published an article from the Washington County Democrat, in relation to a change which was about taking place in the control of the Air Line Railroad from Milwaukee to Fond du Lac.

We learn from one of the Directors of that company, that arrangements have now been fully consummated by which that Road has passed into the hands of the Directors of the Milwaukee and Superior Railroad Company. The construction of the Road is to be commenced as soon as the necessary surveys can be made. The route will follow the Milwaukee and Superior Road for about 20 miles, and diverge thence to West Bend.

The liveliest interest is felt in this project along the whole line, and especially at West Bend and Fond du Lac. The company are assured of liberal subscriptions to the capital stock, and they have little doubt that they shall be able to complete the road to West Bend by the 1st of December. The Superior Road is expected to be in operation some 20 miles and upwards early next fall, and the distance of about 14 miles from the point of junction is all that will be required to secure this desirable result.

We are informed that iron sufficient to lay the track has been secured upon favorable terms. The Milwaukee & Fond du Lac Air Line Road has always been regarded by our citizens with favor, and the prospect of its speedy construction, at a time when the business of the North has become equal in importance to that of any portion of the State, will be a subject of congratulation to every Milwaukeean.

The connection formed with the Milwaukee & Superior Road leaves but about 43 miles of separate road to be constructed, which, it is believed, can be accomplished within two years from this time, with proper effort—speed the work!

Our New Senator.

The News, of yesterday, parades sundry paragraphs from its exchanges, aimed at Judge DOOLITTLE, our U. S. Senator elect, and among them the following from the Albany Atlas and Argus:

James R. Doolittle, formerly of this State, has been nominated by the Republican Caucus of Wisconsin, as Senator in the place of Dodge, whose term is to expire. The Milwaukee Sentinel (Whig) complains that in July last Mr. D. did not know which to support, Buchanan or Fremont.

Mr. D. was in the same state of dubiety when he lived in this State; and though a free soil Democrat of the Buffalo platform school, was strongly inclined to go for Gen. Taylor, "without a proviso," with whom he was then in correspondence.

"The Milwaukee Sentinel" never said any thing of the sort attributed to it; and we are in doubt whether to credit the News, or the Atlas with this "weak invention." As to the rest of the Atlas diatribe, it is well and promptly answered by the Albany Evening Journal. We copy the reply, as the "antidote" to the News and Atlas "bane":

The Atlas hasn't the prudence to hide its mortification at the gradual decay of the Slave Power in the Senate. The difficulty of doing so is doubly enhanced when the selected representatives of Freedom are taken from among those who were once the political friends of that journal. Their triumph is a condemnation of its abandonment of principles. And it is because they have been true, where it has been false that is not so vindictive toward whoever has refused to imitate or laud its treason.

Mr. Doolittle is one of these. He acted with the Atlas in '48. But he has not, like the Atlas, ignored the "corner stone," nor become the servile tool of the power which it then combated. The doctrines of which he was the eloquent champion in '48, he is chosen as the honored representative now. He has won the distinction of the Federal Senatorial office by his fidelity. The Atlas has reached its low depth of humiliation by its treason. It dislikes whatever reminds it of the past, and hates whoever stands upon a Platform which itself aided to construct but from which it has since shamefully fallen.

Those who know him best will most rejoice at the success of James R. Doolittle. Educated in the pure atmosphere of Western New York, early imbued with an ardent love for Freedom, and having grown strong with his years, in the faith of "the fathers," he will take rank, in the Senate of the United States, with the truest and ablest defenders of the principles once professed, but now repudiated by the Atlas.

CONTESTED SEAT.—Capt. Markland, who was the Democratic candidate for Assembly, and who was elected by 13 majority, arrived in town yesterday, to take his seat; but found it already occupied by one Geo. Strong, notwithstanding the Captain had the certificate of election in his pocket, and had not before heard any question of his election.

The circumstances are like this, as we understand them:

Mr. Strong, upon ascertaining the vote in the counties of Polk and St. Croix, and that he had a majority of such votes, by some process obtained a certificate of election, and posted off to this city, without waiting to ascertain the result in the whole district. The canvass of the remaining counties of La Pointe, Douglass and Burnett, showed Capt. Markland to be elected, as above stated, and he has the proper papers to show.—Madison Argus, Jan. 27.

The Argus proceeds to say that the Assembly rejected a motion to refer this case to a Select Committee, and sent it to the Standing Committee on Privileges and Elections, whence the Argus infers that the Republican majority do not intend to show Capt. MARKLAND "fair play." We draw precisely the opposite conclusion.—Undoubtedly the reference made by the Assembly was the proper one, and if the facts are as stated by the Argus, there will not, as there should not be, a moment's hesitation in giving Capt. MARKLAND his seat.

THE AIR LINE RAIL ROAD TO FOND DU LAC.—The article on this subject in yesterday's Sentinel should have been credited to the Washington County (West Bend) Democrat. We earnestly hope that the anticipations of our Washington County contemporary, as to the resumption and speedy completion of this important enterprise, may be verified to the letter.

MILWAUKEE & HORICON RAIL ROAD.—The people along the line of this important thoroughfare, between Berlin and Stevens Point, are subscribing to its stock with a liberality and promptness deserving of all praise. The Stevens Point Pinery of the 22d inst. says:

We had a visit yesterday from Messrs. Richards & Bowen, Directors of the Milwaukee and Horicon R. R. The subscriptions to stock, seem to be just begun here. This vicinity will very likely take to the amount of a million of dollars before the season expires.

THE BRIBERY INVESTIGATION.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Times, who refuses to testify to such facts as the Committee desire, says that nevertheless, there are already ample facts before the committee to justify an investigation.

Wisconsin Banks and Currency.

The Detroit Daily Advertiser of Monday last contains the following paragraph:

☞ By the latest Milwaukee papers, we perceive that there is not the slightest feeling in that city concerning the currency of the Wisconsin banks. The only paragraph relating to money matters, in the Sentinel of Tuesday, is the following:

Money is very stringent, and some uneasiness felt about Illinois currency. Business is good for the season, but collections slow and difficult, and failures more frequent than agreeable.

We think our brokers have cried "wolf" about often enough.

We gather, from similar givings-out in the Cincinnati papers, that there too, the Brokers have raised the cry of "wolf" whenever they were offered a Wisconsin bill. No doubt they find their profit in this game, as the money being perfectly good, whatever shave they exact is so much clear gain. The public, however, should know that this cry of "wolf" is a false alarm.—Our Wisconsin Banks are prudently managed; their general condition, as shown by the Comptroller's recent report, is very sound; and their issues are secured by the deposit of State Stocks in the Comptroller's hands. They have passed thro' several trying seasons, and have profited by the experience thus acquired, and the outstanding currency of one or two of the smallest banks, which could not weather the financial crisis, was all redeemed without loss to the bill holders.—Under these circumstances the cry of "wolf," set up by the money changers, ought to find no credence among sensible business men in Detroit, or elsewhere.

ILLINOIS MONEY.—The Chicago papers of yesterday announce that the Prairie State Bank, which was discredited, has made arrangements with the Marine Bank, of that city, for the redemption of its notes, which will be taken at par by that institution. Its bills are therefore current again. The brokers, here and at Chicago, who have been buying up the bills at 20 per cent. discount for a few days past, made a good thing of it.

As to the other discredited Banks, the Chicago Democrat of yesterday says:

Persons holding the notes of any of the Illinois doubtful banks should not be led to sacrifice them by designing parties. We notice that Missouri Bonds have gone up to 87 cents in New York. This should make the notes of every doubtful bank worth their face.

We notice that the People's Bank of Carmi has virtually suspended. This will make no difference in the value of its notes, however, as funds are in the hands of the Auditor sufficient to redeem them.

For the Sentinel.

Railroad Detentions.

MESSRS EDITORS:—In your issue of the 27th of January, "Free Pass," in reply to M. J. Thomas, of the Fond du Lac Union, says "the Chicago, St. Paul & Fond du Lac R. R. has been from 4 to 6 days without trains, and at this time has ceased to take either freight or passengers."

It is obvious that the Union refers to the Northern Division, running into Fond du Lac.

Such being the case, I feel it but just to state that there has been only one day this winter, but what the trains on the Northern Division have promptly made their time as demanded by Time Table, and now are running regularly. Neither have they lost but three connections at the La Crosse Junction since last April.

OBSERVER.

"DISUNION" SENTIMENTS.—While many of the papers are sharply censuring the Convention of fanatics, who recently amused themselves by meeting at Worcester, Massachusetts, to inquire into the expediency of dissolving the Union, a kindred set of extremists at Cleveland, Ohio, are permitted to go "unwhipt of justice." We allude to the "Bachelor Barristers" of that city, who, but a few days since, went off for a sleigh-ride and supper, by themselves, and then and there uttered, in the shape of toasts, the following treasonable opinions:

1st. The President elect of the United States.—The first from the illustrious order of B. B.'s.

2d. The "Bachelor Barristers" of the Cleveland Bar—Unterrified by "eyes"—invincible to "arms"—we meet to "celebrate."

5th. Bachelor Barristers—Whenever they go to "court" with an "attachment suit" on hand, may their "pleadings" never be "demurred" to, or their suits dismissed with prejudice.

6th. The case of Single Blessedness vs. Love in the Cottage.

7th. True Friendship—Unknown except to men.

9th. Our Future "Fathers in-Law"—Where are they?

10th. Domestic Relations—Another name for the halter.

11th. The Critic's Pen—Its widest field Woman.

12th. Woman's Rights—An alarming feature of the day, and we frown upon the movement.

14th.—Woman's Helplessness—We "demur to the pleadings."

16th. The Press—The true conservator of our free institutions; the only kind of "press" tolerated by bachelors.

The following toasts were then volunteered:

1st. The Hen Pecked Husband—"Ye who who have tears to shed prepare to shed them now."

2d. "Matches are made in Heaven"—We admit the adage but deny the authority.

4th. The Married Man—"The victim of false pretences."

Such sentiments deserve no mercy. We turn over the culprits to the first "Woman's Rights Convention" that meets and will take jurisdiction of the offence.

LAKES ERIE AND MICHIGAN IN WINTER.—Lake Erie is now one vast field of ice as far as the eye can reach, from shore to shore. Along the shore the ice is fine, smooth and solid, and covered at all practicable hours with troops of skaters, while farther away it is covered with a snowy crust upon which skaters never venture.

Lake Michigan, on the contrary, spurns the fetters of the Frost-King. There is no ice to be seen on its broad expanse, save just along the shore. And severe and continued as has been the cold of this Winter, the access to our Harbor has not been closed.

AN ACTIVE GOVERNOR.—William A. Newell was to be inaugurated Governor of New Jersey on Tuesday week. On Monday he found that the snow had interrupted all communication between his residence and the capital. On Monday afternoon, the roads being in such a condition as to forbid the use of either sleighs or horses, he walked the whole distance (twelve miles,) arriving at Trenton just in time to receive the robes of office.

EFFECTS OF THE COLD.—From the London Free Press, we learn that one of the effects of the recent cold weather has been to disable twenty-seven of the locomotives belonging to the Great Western Railway. The employers have suffered severely.

PRETTY GOOD.—The Boston correspondent of the New York Post conceives that the Disunion Convention at Worcester, was held during the great snow storm, on account of its being a feasible time to "let the Union slide."

FIRE IN CHICAGO.—The Dry Goods Store of Mr. John Baylon, the Shoe Store of Mr. E. W. Chichester, and the Music Store of W. G. Green, on Lake Street, nearly opposite the Tremont House, Chicago, were destroyed by fire Tuesday night. Loss $15,000 or $20,000, on which there is only a partial insurance.

WEATHER AND TIMES AT STEVENS POINT.—By the following extract from the Stevens Point Pinery of the 22nd inst, it will be seen that there is a close match between Jack Frost and the money market there, as to which pinches the hardest. With the mercury at 42 degrees below zero, and money at 10 per cent. a month, we don't wonder that people in the Pineries "take to the woods" and postpone pay-day till "the logs come down."

☞ The cold weather was intensified here on the morning of the 18th, when the mercury sunk to the congealing point, forty-two degrees below zero! It stood 39 below on the morning of the 19th. A slight fall of snow on the 20th.

Produce coming in moderately; prices firm and advancing, especially on Pork. Flour at a stand. Our money market is tight:—any ten per cent a month, secured by judgment notes at 30 days with two or three good endorsers! and none to be got at that! Never mind; the logs are coming soon.

Lake Superior Items.

We are in receipt of the Lake Superior Miner of January 10th (pretty good time for mid-winter) and are quite gratified to find that our hyperborean neighbours are getting comfortably thro' the season of snows. We clip sundry items from the Miner:

☞ The first large private party of the season came off on Thursday evening last. It was quite a brilliant affair, got up with admirable taste, arrangement and care for the enjoyment of the guests, and passed off delightfully.

LAKE SUPERIOR STOCK.—A hog was killed in this village a few days since that weighed 510 lbs, and was sold at 14 cents per lb, bringing the amount of $71,41 cents.

☞ An over-land mail from Green Bay, via Marquette, arrived on Wednesday, the 7th ult. Also, one from Superior and La Point, bringing dates from below up to December the 10th inst.

WEATHER.—Old Boreas & Co., have settled their accounts with the close of last year, and our clear fine winter days have only been interrupted for a few days since New Year by a call of old Mr. Boreas himself, which was received with as much coldness as it was given. Since then we have had calm, bright and cold weather, and as the days are bright so are our nights illuminated with the brilliancy and splendor which is peculiar to the climate of the Northwest. The temperature in December was comparatively mild, since the 1st of January it has remained about zero, and the coldest night since and of this winter was 8 deg. below zero. We hope the cold weather will continue to enable our harbor company to go on with their work, which has been long detained by the mildness of the weather.

The Miner contains notices of religious services at Catholic, Methodist, Presbyterian and Episcopalian Churches, and publishes calls for meetings of Odd Fellows and Masonic Lodges, of a Philharmonic Society and of a Young Men's Society. Evidently ONTONAGON is alive and keeps moving, even in the midst of winter.

The Miner looks forward hopefully to early Rail Road connections with Wisconsin, and likes the disposition made by our Legislature of the North-East Land Grant. It desires also to see a road built from Copper Harbor, thro' the heart of the Mining District, between the branches of the Ontonagon River, past Lake Vieux Desert, to the head waters of the Wisconsin, and thence, down that stream, to the settlements. A glance at the map will show that this is a very direct route and central to the whole mining region.—The Miner adds that it would combine the entire copper interests by the shortest route, and reach the Wisconsin settlements by the most direct line. This road, of course, would connect at Stevens' Point with the Milwaukee and Horicon Rail Road. The Miner concludes thus:

There is at the present time a strong movement in the Upper Wisconsin, which looks to the ultimate accomplishment of so much of it as relates to the line between this place and Stevens Point. There are fine pineries on Eagle river, which is the main and most northerly branch of the Wisconsin. There is now a strong probability that a line of railroad will before long be extended from that part of the State which lies just below our southern boundary, to Wausau and Stevens Point. A wagon road will undoubtedly be made, very soon, to the state line, which is only about fifty miles from the mineral range.

Such a road will be of immense service in the construction of the Wisconsin and Superior Railroad, and it will give us greatly increased facilities for regular mail communication.

The citizens of Wisconsin are strong and energetic men. They have invested a large amount of capital in the lumbering business, the importance of which is increasing every day, as the country south of them fills up. And we believe they fully appreciate the importance of a connection with the copper region.

Wisconsin Senator.

We are pleased to record the fact of the nomination of Judge Doolittle for U. S. Senator by the Republicans of the Wisconsin Legislature. Judge D. is a worthy scion of the Radical Democracy of New York. His first appearance in public life was at the notorious Empire Hall Convention, held in September, 1847, which continued from Wednesday noon until "the small hours" of Sunday morning and ended in a general melee, without however, any broken noses. Preston King, George P. Barker, John Van Buren, Judge Doolittle, and George Rathbun were the leading spirits of that body, on the "Barnburner" side. Mr. D. made one or two able and eloquent speeches, which at once gave him a decided prominence in politics. The "Hunkers" had much less talent in the Convention, but in point of numbers they had the ascendency. James T. Brady was their principal reliance, and it was the universal opinion that he "acted well his part." John Van Buren and all the other "Barnburners," whose seats were contested, were ousted from the Convention and "Hunkers" substituted. John's case was not decided until after the lapse of three days—the same time he remarked as "Jonah was in the whale's belly." But he was subsequently admitted to the "Bolter's Convention" at Herkimer, without objection, where he addressed his "Fellow Traitors" in a speech, the ring of which was heard throughout the Union, and which foreshadowed the defeat of the Democratic party of the country in the following year.—Judge Doolittle subsequently removed to Wisconsin, where he was soon elevated to the Bench, from which he has been removed to a higher and wider sphere of usefulness. We rejoice at his success, in the well grounded belief that he will wear his new honors with credit to himself and advantage to his adopted State.—Syracuse (N. Y.) Standard.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—Mr. William Burton, was frozen to death on the night of the 17th inst., near the North shore of Lake Poygan. Mr. Burton had been to Menasha, taking out pre-emption papers and was on his return home; and walked a long distance during the day, and was much fatigued when he left a house on the South shore of the Lake, about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The distance across the Lake is about four miles. He was found on Sunday morning in a deserted shanty near the Lake shore. The deceased was an unmarried man, an Englishman by birth, about 32 years of age, has no relatives in this country; has two sisters in England. Mr. B. was in the employ of Mr. Freer of Blooomfield Waushara County and was an industrious, sober man.

ANOTHER.—A Mr. Snell, of Bloomfield, Waushara County, was frozen to death on the night of the 8th instant. The deceased, in company with a brother, had been to a settlement on Pine River on business; on their return they became intoxicated, and deceased by some means got out of the sleigh, and not having sufficient strength to get home, lay down and was frozen to death. He leaves a wife and three children.—Oshkosh Courier, Jan 26.

ATROCIOUS MURDER.—About half past ten o'clock, yesterday, Henry Epler, in the employ of Moore, Severance & Co., at their packing house on the river, in South Chicago, was fatally stabbed by a fellow workman named Michael Mack.—The parties are both young men, the former a German and the latter Irish, and were, with several others, at work in the packing house, when there passed between them some words, which from their tone or language would have attracted no attention from the bystanders, and apparently as the result of the altercation, Mack sprang towards Epler, who turned away, when Mack plunged the large keen knife he had been using at his bench, into the right side of his back, just below the ribs, inflicting a deep and ghastly wound. The unfortunate man fell to the floor, covered with blood. His murderer turned to his bench, laid down his knife, took from the wall, near by, his coat, and left the house and starting into a run went south along the river bank.

It seems singular, and is as yet unaccounted for, that he should have been allowed thus to make his escape, as there were twenty or more men in and about the building. Probably the startling atrocity of the act prevented the prompt decision which might easily have secured the murderer.—Chicago Dem. Press, Jan. 28.

The Ship Resolute—An Era of Good Feeling.

LONDON, Dec. 30. 1856.

Nothing can be more gratifying than the good feeling which has been created in this country by the beautiful compliment of the American Government in returning the Resolute as a present to the Queen. The United States stand one hundred per cent higher in English estimation than they have done since the Revolution. In fact America is in everybody's mouth, and we are pronounced a nation of noble hearts and generous sympathies. The Queen has commanded for her private gallery a picture of her reception on board the Resolute, as a memorial of what is termed "a most noble act of international courtesy." The picture will include portraits of the various members of the Royal family, and of Capt. Hartstein and the American officers who accompanied him. Punch has an engraving representing the presentation, headed "Britannia and Jonathan—Mother and child doing well." Jonathan is in the act of handing over the Resolute to Britania, while Punch pats him on the back, and exclaims, "That's a good boy!" His heart's in the right place," Britania wishes Jonathan "a merry Christmas and many happy new years."

LOSS OF THE BRIG EMELINE!

Captain and Crew all Lost

TERRIBLE SCENES.

The particulars of the loss of the Emiline we have procured from a gentleman who arrived from the beach last evening, being the first person from that quarter since Saturday last.

About 8 o'clock on Sunday morning, while Capt. Haggerty, the host of the Ocean House, was quietly sipping his coffee, and wondering when the N. N. E. storm was going to cease, he looked out seaward, and espied the upper part of a brig heading for the beach. As yet her hull was hidden from sight, but he could see that she was crippled in her spars, and as he thought in a very sad plight. Soon her hull loomed up, and he could see that it was evidently the intention of her captain to run her ashore, because with the wind that was then blowing she might have been kept off without much difficulty. So he came to the conclusion that she was disabled in her rigging and leaky, and the pumps being probably frozen, and the men worn out with toil and exposure, her captain had determined to resort to the last chance for saving the lives of himself and crew. On she came, staggering and slow, as if unwilling to lay her bones on the beach like an old hulk, after the brave services which she had done.

On she came, nearer and nearer; the stout Captain left his comfortable abode and ran down toward the beach, while the women-folk crowded to the door in breathless suspense to watch the impending catastrophe. On she came, nearer yet, till the faces of her crew could be seen, pale and ghastly, from the shore. The white breakers leap and roar eagerly to the fatal embrace; as her prow parts the milky foam every man cried "God help us!" and held firmly to the frozen rigging. Another moment and she has struck the beach, and the sea is breaking wildly over her decks.

Three miles off, these events had been observed by Edward Wardle, the Underwriters' agent and keeper of the life saving apparatus, who, leaving orders for his trusty crew to follow with surf-boats, life-cars, cables and mortars, jumped into his wagon and dashed off to the wreck. Twenty minutes after she struck, he was on the beach near her. She lay head on shore, some seventy or eighty yards from the beach, the sea breaking over her starboard side. There were only six men to be seen on board. Whether any others were lying in their bunks below, frostbitten, and unable to crawl up, may never be known. The main sail was half set and the sailors getting under the lee of it, were for a while somewhat sheltered from the storm. Capt. Haggerty thought that if they had launched their boat over the lee rail as soon as the brig struck, they might have got safely ashore; but they seemed physically incapable of exertion. Probably they were frostbitten, or had not strength enough left to launch the boat, and very soon it was too late; for, as our informant graphically described it, "the storm came on heavy enough to blow the oars out of their row-locks."

To launch a boat from the beach in such a gale was impossible, and as soon as the mortar arrived Mr. Wardle shot a line over the brig's rigging. The poor fellows cheered a feeble cheer, but it was almost dismal enough for a groan, and one of them tried to clamber up the icy ratlines to catch it. He was evidently too much benumbed, and the attempt was abandoned. Another and another line was thrown over her by Mr. Wardle, but they were too far gone to help themselves.—Five lines were fired at various elevations across the brig, but none of them was of any use to the doomed men. It was a terrible storm, the wind driving the sea in huge waves over the vessel, and hailing torrents of sharp sand and pebbles into the faces and eyes of the wreckers on shore. Soon the mainsail gave way, and the sea swept the deck. Some of the men took to the rigging; others went down into the cabin and one crept upon his belly out upon the bowsprit. Too feeble to help themselves, they looked for aid to the men on shore, and occasionally raised a feeble shout; but they had done all that was possible for their assistance. If the men on the brig had only been able to haul the hawsers out, the life-car could have been sent off to them, and they might have been saved. How painfully the wreckers watched their motions—how imploringly the poor fellows looked toward the shore. Presently those in the cabin crawled on deck again, and another man tried to reach the friendly rope. He too failed. As the tide rose the wreckers drew back their surfboat and the men on the brig, thinking they were about to desert them set up a wild wail that was heard high above the crash of the storm. Mr. Wardle made signs that he intended to stay by them, and the assurance seemed to cheer them a little. In a little while the man on the bowsprit moved down the deck and throwing over the top of the galley or something very like it, leaped into the sea after it. After buffeting the waves for awhile he gained the raft, but it was held fast by a line which he had not seen, to the vessel. Full fifteen minutes he clung to the float, and the men on shore could see it turn over and over in the boiling waves. Occasionally, only the feet of the man were visible, but he held bravely on until the line parted. The raft then came towards the beach, the man still on it, and the wreckers crowded down as close as they could to the water to save him. Their humane intentions were defeated, for just as the shipwrecked man was all but within their grasp, the waves dashed him against a high ledge of ice, which projected from the shore, and they saw him no more. As the day wore on the storm waxed fiercer, and the cold grew more intense, it was evident that no human aid could reach the mariners. Three of them returned to the cabin, and were never seen to come out of it again.

A fourth, a young and slender man with black hair and beard, lashed himself along the lee-rail directly under the chain plates, and laid his head over on the outside, as if to protect it from the salt water. The fifth man ascended the rigging, which had now become heavily incrusted with ice, and held on for a long time.

In their exposed situation on the beach most of the wreckers were badly frost bitten in the faces, feet and ears. Several of them were so badly frozen that they were obliged to be driven home at once to save their lives, and others came out to serve in their places. About four o'clock in the afternoon the man in the rigging loosed his hold and fell backward, dead, on the deck. The young man lashed to the rail was also insensible or dead, for he had made no motion for several hours; so the wreckers, having done all that they could, secured their implements, and with heavy hearts wended their way homeward.—N. Y. Tribune, Jan. 23.

Oconomowoc Female Seminary.

D. W. BALLOU, JR.:—Are you, and the other friends of Female Education in this new State, aware that in that flourishing village, Oconomowoc—so pleasantly located between two lakes—there is an institution where are offered the very best advantages for moral and intellectual training, and where everything that is taught in our best Female Seminaries at the east, can be learned under the most favorable auspices, from the best of teachers. I have often visited the school in question—the "Oconomowoc Female Seminary"—and have, from time to time, been thrown in company with its inmates—both teachers and scholars.

Though it is yet in its infancy, having been in existence but a few months, yet there has been the most marked improvement in the young ladies who have attended it during the brief period.

In fact, the entire management of it is admirable. While everything is done in the family of the Principal to render the stay of pupils pleasant, such a truly parental care is exercised over them in regard to manners and morals; such kindly attention paid to the preservation of their health, and such prudent care taken of them when sick, as must commend it most strongly to the favorable regard of all acquainted with the facts.

While the Principals, Mrs. Mason and her daughters, by their familiarity with the more solid branches of learning, as well as with the more elegant accomplishments, are a host within themselves, they are assisted by the Rector, the Rev. Mr. Davis—than whom, if I may judge, few are more competent to teach, both from his knowledge of the branches taught, and from his happy faculty of enlisting the interest and attention of pupils, and imparting instruction in the most engaging and profitable manner.

Such an institution as this, under the patronage of the Episcopal Church as it is, and subject to the supervision of the Bishop of the Diocese, should most certainly enlist in its behalf the warm sympathies of all the friends of education in that denomination; while all, of whatever sect, can feel assured that they may place their children in Mrs. Mason's family without apprehension that aught will be done to induce them to swerve from the peculiar denominational tenets in which they have been educated.

INDIAN TROUBLES ON THE ST. CROIX.—The Sioux Indians having become numerous and troublesome on the St. Croix, above Stillwater, a meeting of settlers was held at Marine Mills recently, to devise means for protection. It was resolved to appeal to the authorities to remove, and if it was not done to drive them out by force of arms. We saw Dr. Huebschmann a few days ago, on his way to Milwaukee, who informed us that he had requested the commandant at Fort Snelling to send over two or three sleigh loads of soldiers to frighten them away, but as he had no authority to order the commandant to do so, it was doubtful whether this step would be taken. Dr. Huebschmann is an energetic and sagacious Superintendent of Indian affairs, but the government does not invest him with power to execute punishment upon the savages for infraction of treaties, as some suppose. If all Superintendents were like him, it would be well for Congress to legislate greater powers into their hands.—Prescott (Pierce Co.) Transcript.

Assassination of the Archbishop of Paris—The Particulars.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times gives the following particulars of the assassination of the Archbishop:

PARIS, Sunday, 6 P. M.

The Archbishop of Paris was assassinated at 5½ o'clock last evening, in the ancient church of St. Etienne du Mont, while officiating pontifically at the novena in honor of the festival of Sainte Genevieve, the patroness of Paris. The relics of the saint are said to be kept in that church since the destruction of that which had been dedicated to her; and on the 3d of January, the anniversary of her death, a solemn novena or nine days' devotions, prayers, masses, and other acts of piety, and which from its celebrity attracts crowds of people, is regularly celebrated there. After vespers and a sermon, which was preached by the Abbe Lacarriere, the procession of the lady patronesses of Sainte Genevieve took place. The Archbishop presided, as he had at the religious ceremonies during the day. As he was passing the outer door, to enter the principal nave, a young man, apparently about 30 years of age, suddenly advanced and stabbed the prelate in the direction of the heart. The victim retreated two steps back—his crozier fell from his hand—and, exclaiming "Ah, malheureux!" sunk to the earth. He was carried dying to the sacristy. The body was borne to the Archiepiscopal Palace, in the Rue Grenelle St. Germain, at 8 o'clock.

The assassin's name is Verges. He was a priest of the diocese of Meaux, and had been several times suspended from the exercise of his functions. He made himself known some short time since by a violent pamphlet against the Procureur-Imperial (the law officer of the crown) of St. Leon, Department of the Aisne. He was proceeded against and condemned to punishment. He also incurred for this pamphlet the censure of his ecclesiastical superiors, and particularly of the Archbishop. He is said likewise to have been suspended from his functions for having preached against the dogma of the "Immaculate Conception." It was in consequence of the last suspension that he came to Paris, where he first meditated the crime which he has just perpetrated. A Sister of Charity who had observed the movement of the assassin and attempted to throw herself between the Archbishop and him, was wounded in the hand.

The assassin made an attempt to escape in the crowd, but he was seized by five or six of the congregation, and narrowly escaped being strangled by them. In his examination before the authorities he answered coolly. He says he was suspended without just cause.

Some time since he affixed a placard to the gates of the Madeleine, complaining of his punishment by the Archbishop, and stating that he was perishing of hunger. He had already been pointed out to the police for having threatened one of the most respectable parish priests in Paris, but he never said that he entertained any evil designs against the Archbishop. He came to Paris on Christmas eve, and lodged at No. 2 Rue Racine. He has passed his time since then in reading at the public libraries. He was dressed as a layman, and his paletot was stuffed with writings.

The following notice has been posted on the doors of the St. Etienne du Mont:

"Monseigneur the Archbishop having been stabbed to death at 5 o'clock this afternoon, by a criminal hand in the Church of St. Etienne du Mont, the Church remains under an interdict until the expiatory ceremony which shall be subsequently commenced."

To-day the outside of the Church of St. Etienne du Mont is hung with black cloth. No high mass has been chanted to-day in any Church throughout the diocese of Paris. In its place a low mass was celebrated, after which the clergy sang the seven penitential psalms.

The Metropolitan Chapter has already met for receiving the official notification of the death of the Archbishop, and for taking measures for the administration of the diocese until a successor be appointed. The body of the deceased will be laid out in State, arrayed in his pontifical robes, in a chappelle ardente of the Archiepiscopal Palace, immediately after the embalming. The Church of St. Etienne du Mont is placed under interdict by the fact of the crime having been committed there, and it will not be opened until it is purified by an expiatory ceremony.

The general opinion is, that the assassin is deranged in mind, and has been so for some time past. He was in the insurrection of June, and then also received the murdered prelate in his arms. The late Archbishop (Marie Dominique Auguste Sibour) was born in 1791, in the diocese of Valence (Tarn et Garonne.)

COUNTY JUDGE.—We are pleased to learn of the appointment by the Governor, of A. P. Hodges Esq., of this City, to the office of County Judge for Winnebago County, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the Hon. D. C. Blodgett.

Mr. Hodges is a gentleman, and a man of an ordinary legal ability, and we congratulate the executive upon the excellence of this appointment.—Oshkosh Democrat.

Grace Greenwood's First.

My weaker will to Fate's imperious shall?
'Tis not a boy! yet, such as 'tis, 'tis mine:
Then let me, thankful, murmur, c'est égal.

DIED.

In this city, on Tuesday, Jan. 27, at 5 o'clock P. M., of Appoplexy, Capt. FRANCIS L. K. RUSSELL, late of the Regiment of Mounted Rifles, U. S. Army, (son of the late Capt. Samuel L. Russell, late of the Second Regiment of Infantry, U. S. A., who fell in action with the Seminoles in Florida, in 1839, while gallantly leading his command,) aged 31 years. Funeral from Arcade Buildings, East Water Street, at 2 P. M. to-day.

The deceased was engaged in all the actions under Gen. SCOTT, from Vera Cruz to the city of Mexico; and having distinguished himself as a brave and gallant officer, was recommended, in general orders, by Gen. Scott, and received a Brevet Captaincy, particularly for gallantry at Chapultepec. He came to this city in the month of November last, with a design to make it his future home. He was a gentleman of cultivated and refined intellect—courteous and affable in his manners—an agreeable companion and honorable man. With such qualities he very readily made the acquaintance of many of our citizens, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was a brave and generous man, and one who has done his country service. Those who have enjoyed his acquaintance will long remember him for his genial and sterling qualities, while his relatives and more immediate friends will deeply mourn the sudden loss of one who possessed so many endearing traits of character.—COMMUNICATED.

COMMERCIAL.

THE MARKETS, &c.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
MILWAUKEE January 29, 1857.

Received by Mil. & Miss. R. R.—5,225 bu wheat, 50 bbls flour, 1,632 bu corn, 269 do barley, 3 do oats, 241 hogs, 195 hides, 33 bdls pelts, 25 do brooms.

By LaCrosse & Milwaukee R. R.—58 bbls flour, 3,040 bu wheat, 453 do barley, 94 hides, 225 pelts, 14,512 lbs sundries.

Watertown Division—269 bbls flour, 896 bus. wheat, 8 sacks flour, 3,585 lbs sundries.

Freight trains are running once more and receipts of produce are increasing rapidly. The market, however, has not yet recovered its wonted activity; scarcity of money operating, perhaps, to check transactions. We note moderate sales at our quotations:

WHEAT—inactive, 90a94 for Club, 91 (?)al 10 for Winter.

RYE—firm, 65a70.

BARLEY—in request, 1,20a1,45.

OATS quiet—35a38.

CORN—dull, 50a52.

POTATOES—in fair request, 62½a75.

PORK—steady, $8a8,50.

BUTTER—16a20c.

EGGS—18 cents.

Another very fine winter day, yesterday.

Earnings of the M. & M. Railroad.

The gross earnings of the Milwaukee & Mississippi Railroad for each month of the past three years, are thus given in the report of the Superintendent, the President and Directors of the Company:

	1854	1855	1856
January,	$28,224 99	$53 247 09	$26,532 62
February,	26 194 83	26 306 09	22,531 64
March,	30,772 95	32,459 23	30,523 93
April,	15,813 45	33,008 53	35,522 23
May,	41,751 81	66,944 15	61,567 80
June,	45,164 90	65,127 80	65,696 14
July,	35,555 64	47,158 14	68,060 62
August,	82,824 03	53,095 51	56,904 62
September,	64,163 64	57,761 93	92,556 50
October,	68,573 81	112,109 41	129,146 52
November,	55,188 96	84,192 91	55,379 13
December,	29,372 45	49,583 05	35,418 89
	$465,051 19	$691,848 94	$650,472 45

The large falling off in receipts, in November and December last, was attributable to the sudden decline in prices in the former month and the severe snow storms and cold in the latter. But for these drawbacks the aggregate receipts for 1856 would have reached $750,000.

The amounts of freight moved over the road for the three years, compare as follows:

	1854	1855	1856
Tonnage going East,	62,526	51,120	63,316
" " West,	48,127	51,234	90,581
Aggregate.	112,053	102,354	153,517

The same explanation that is given for a decline in the earnings of last year, may be applied to the deficiency in freight from the West.

The coming season will show a very large increase in the Freight and Passenger traffic of this road.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.

There is but little doing in the Grain or Produce market. Notwithstanding trains for two or three days on the Galena road, and only some 4,000 bu wheat yesterday by the other roads, which covers nearly all the grain received. Only 300 to 400 head of hogs have come in per day also, which, however, about supplies the present limited demand at previous quotations. Money continues close and Exchange on New York scarcely to be had, except at unusually high rates. One dealer to-day was enabled to get $10,000 in exchange at 2 per cent premium, by picking it up in small amounts at different places.

POLICE COURT, JANUARY 28.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

Edward Kaler, charged with bastardy, case was held open.

Daniel Haffner, charged with assault and battery upon Margaret Conway. Case dismissed on payment of the costs by the defendant.

CIRCUIT COURT.

HON. A. W. RANDALL, PRESIDING.

The Circuit Court was adjourned sine die yesterday forenoon. It is less than two weeks to the next term.

Mrs. Fanny Kemble's Readings.

Our citizens have now enjoyed four evenings with FANNY KEMBLE and Shakespeare and we but speak their common opinion when we say that it has been altogether the most agreeable entertainment ever offered in Milwaukee. The test has been a severe one, as Mrs. KEMBLE selected for her readings, plays rarely seen upon the modern stage and therefore less familiar to the general public. She commenced with "Coriolanus;" then, "Julius Cæsar;" next, "King Lear;" and lastly, "the Merry Wives of Windsor." Her audiences, large from the first, have steadily increased and on Tuesday evening Young's Hall fairly overflowed. The unusual attraction justified and rewarded this extra attendence. Undoubtedly Mrs. KEMBLE's reading of "the Merry Wives of Windsor" was a master piece of elocution. She riveted the attention of her audience from the very first scene and held it spell bound till the close. It was marvellous to hear and see with what facility she changed voice, manner, expression and gesture, to suit each different character as reflected in Shakspeare's magic glass. At one moment, we heard the gruff notes of the "fat Knight," roaring and rollicking among his "knaves" at the "Garter Inn;" then the broken English, dove tailed with good French, of Doctor CAIUS; the morbid jealousy of FORD; the manly love of FENTON; the coaxing, insinuating wiles and ways of that perfect "she Mercury," Mrs. QUICKLEY; the low, musical breathings of "sweet ANNE PAGE;" the simpering stupidity and blundering bashfulness of SLENDER; and above and beyond all, the exuberant, prolific mischief and ringing, infectious laugh of the two "Merry Wives." One could almost hear the "fat Knight" sise as he was tossed into the Thames and see "sweet Anne Page" tease and torment Master Slender, when she demurely invites him to "do his own wooing." It was, in a word, a delightful treat and the audience enjoyed and appreciated it to the full. Hyper-criticism, indeed, might have detected flaws in the performance, but who cavils at the spots on the god of day, when basking in his glorious sunshine?

The audiences which have attended these "Readings" have not only been complimentary to Mrs KEMBLE, but creditable to the good taste and refinement of our city.—We do not doubt that for the two remaining evenings, tonight and to-morrow, the Hall will be crowded. The play for this evening is "Measure for Measure," and for tomorrow "Anthony and Cleopatra."

John B. Gough.

We are glad to be able to state, on the authority of a letter from Mr. GOUGH's Agent in Chicago, that there is a probability that Mr. G. will lecture here during the second week in February.

He was, long since, engaged for a few lectures here, but it unfortunately happened that for the few evenings on which Mr. GOUGH could come, the Hall was previously engaged and no suitable room could be obtained. We believe that there will be no such difficulty, if he should be able to come in February, as he now hopes to do.

The pecuniary profit of Mr. G.'s lectures, this season, as last, will go to the Young Men's Association, so that our citizens will be able both to encourage most effective labor in a good cause and to aid the library of the Association, which is, we believe, the only public library in our city.

But we need not make reasons. GOUGH will draw a crowd whenever he comes.

One of the Crew of the "Chesapeake" in Jail.

In the Milwaukee Jail there is an old sailor named Alexander Hamilton, confined upon a peace warrant for some domestic difficulty with his wife. His life, so far, has been a chequered one, and a brief sketch may be interesting:

He is a native of Eastport, Maine and in 1818, when in a fishing shallop off Eastport, was pressed into the British Navy—was in three of the British Seventy Fours, the Victorious, Sea Horse and Valiant, was carried to sea, and when off Bermuda was sent back to America and landed at New York.

On his way home from New York to Eastport, and while in Boston, he volunteered to join the Chesapeake for revenge, he says, and was made at once a powder-monkey, the duties of which station had been taught him by the Britishers while in imprisonment. He served, and was wounded in three places, in the action between the Chesapeake and the Shannon off Boston Bay.

He states that when the Chesapeake stood to sea, to engage the Shannon, Captain Lawrence ranged his crew along the decks, and asked them if they were willing to fight, when every man responded in the affirmative. He says that several of the crew were taken sea-sick before they came within range of the Shannon, that the crew had been hastily collected, and that a great many of them were drunk when the action commenced.

He seems to have witnessed the first broadside of the Chesapeake poured into the Shannon, which raked her fore and aft, killing, as he afterwards learned, upwards of 80 of the British seamen, and seems to think that but for the Chesapeake having taken the wrong cant, which enabled the Shannon to return the raking compliment, the Shannon would have been gutted by the heavy and terrible fire of the Chesapeake's guns.

At the first broadside of the Shannon, which raked the decks of her opponent, the brave, but unfortunate Lawrence was mortally wounded, and nearly all his officers were either badly wounded or killed. He says that in a few minutes the decks were slippery with gore, and the blood pouring in streams from the scuppers; and that when the vessels closed, and the hand-to-hand fight of boarding, or repelling boarders commenced, the crew of the Chesapeake had not an officer to lead them, but fought of their own accord, and upon their own plans and judgment. He tells us that the action lasted not much more than fifteen minutes, when the Chesapeake was captured.

He speaks in the highest terms of the treatment he received when under impressment in the British men of war, that they used him well, adding, "I get rattanned (caned) once, for playing, but you know boys will play any how." In alluding to the treatment of Captain Lawrence by the British, the "old salt" says "they did every thing that could be done for him," and that when the funeral took place at Halifax—"if he'd been the greatest Admiral they had in their service, they could not have paid his body more honors, or given him a more honorable funeral; and we were all allowed ashore to attend his funeral."

Some time afterwards an exchange of prisoners took place, and Hamilton was bartered for a British Seaman, and returned to his native place. After this he went to New York and commenced to, or did serve an apprenticeship to a Ship Builder, and from there volunteered under General Jackson and was with him in all the frontier troubles with the Indians, and helped to erect many of the frontier fortifications. He, like all others, speaks well of the old General.

In the action with the Shannon he was wounded in three places, in the left leg by a musket ball, fired by a marine from the main top of the Shannon, was cut on the head and had a bad wound from a cutlass on his right arm during the boarding fight. He has already received 230 acres of land as bounty for his services from the Government, and yet hopes to receive a pension for his wounds.

This man is 57, being born in 1800, was 14 when the action took place, was powder monkey, a small but very necessary officer even in a man of war. He thinks the fight a very unequal one, says that the crew of the Chesapeake were hastily collected, many of them raw hands and that with a well exercised crew, accustomed to the sea, a different result would have taken place.

Such is the old sailor's story, sought by us, not volunteered by him. We regret deeply that we had to listen to it in jail, the relator a prisoner, for he, a sailor, who had fought, bled, and been severely wounded in the cause of liberty in his boyhood, should have enjoyed it unrestricted the balance of his life. He is kindly treated in jail, assists in some of the necessary employments of the institution, and speaks of the present jailer in the highest terms of gratitude.

REMOVAL.—Messrs. LELAND, PRENTICE & Co., dealers in Boots and Shoes, have removed, from No. 4 to No. 188 East Water street, United States Block. See their card.

Sketches of Scenery in Wisconsin.

Messrs. Brooks and Stevens, Portrait Painters, over Van Cott's Store, have, for some months past, been sketching and finishing up a number of the best landscape views in Wisconsin, and also the portraits of some of the early Pioneers of the civilization and settlement of our State. Among the landscapes is one well worth seeing, the "Dells" upon the Wisconsin river. This is a beautiful, accurate view of a scene of no little notoriety, for its dangers to lumbermen, when shooting the rapids in the freshets, or high waters of the "Wisconse." Many poor fellows have been sucked down in its foam and eddies; scarcely a Spring but some one of the numerous rafts that shoots its rapids has to yield one or two of its crew as an annual victim to the Dells. The scene so faithfully sketched is well worth an inspection.

Several scenes on the Fox River Improvement are also faithfully portrayed on canvass, as well as the different Battle Grounds of the Indians and Whites in the early days of Wisconsin. We are glad that accurate views have been taken, on canvass, of these historical scenes, and hope to see them either engraved, or lithographed.—We understand that all the views of the principal points upon the Fox River, taken at the direction of the Improvement Company, are to be engraved by the Company. They can all be seen at Brooks and Stevens Studio, over Van Cott's store.

TAKING THE SUN—A STANDARD OF TIME.—We accompanied Mr. Hoss, of the firm of LOOMIS & HOSS, yesterday morning, to the snug little observatory which he has built on the top of his house in the Fourth Ward, on purpose to take observations of the sun to regulate the numerous clocks and watches in their extensive establishment. His observatory is fitted with an excellent French Transit instrument, resting on solid foundations, and carefully placed on the meridian. The weather was favorable yesterday and an excellent observation obtained, which showed the regulating clock in LOOMIS & HOSS store to be within a second or two of the mean time. Mr. HOSS has been at great pains and expense to provide himself with all the necessary instruments for taking these observations, and does not allow a week to go by without comparing his Regulator with the sun. He fully appreciates the importance of having a Standard of Time in our city and intends to keep one, whether the Common Council adopt it, or not.

SLIPPERY SIDE-WALKS.—There is a city ordinance which requires all side-walks to be kept free from snow or ice. It has been very generally disregarded, this winter, and, so far as we know, there has been no serious attempt to enforce it. The consequence is, that the side-walks are in a very slippery condition and it is almost impossible, at times, to avoid falling. Should a broken leg, or arm be the result of such a fall, the city would infallibly be cast in heavy damages. The snow and ice are so indurated by six weeks of steady cold weather, that it would be no easy job now to clear the side-walks; but house-keepers and others can, at least, for the present sprinkle ashes on the surface and avail themselves of the first thaw to remove the ice and snow.

DEATH OF AN EX-OFFICER OF THE ARMY.—Capt. FRANCIS S. R. RUSSELL, late of the U. S. Army, died in our city, very suddenly, about midnight Tuesday. Captain RUSSELL entered the service in 1846 or '47 and served with distinction through the Mexican War. He will be buried this afternoon with Military and Masonic honors. The funeral procession will move at 3 P. M, from the Arcade Buildings.

STEALING A BUFFALO ROBE.—A man named John Thompson was arrested yesterday afternoon by Policemen Haack and Beck for stealing a Buffalo Robe from a horse that was left standing in the Second Ward hitched to a post, the night previous, about 11 o'clock. He was taken to the Police Station to await his trial at the Police Court this morning.

THE MURDER IN WAUKESHA COUNTY.—After a somewhat lengthy examination, Stevens, the young man arrested in this city for the murder of a man named Craft, at Brookfield, in Waukesha County, some two weeks since, was committed for trial. No bail was fixed, so we understand, by the Justice.

ALARM OF FIRE.—The Court House bell rang an alarm of fire, between 9 and 10 o'clock last evening, and the other bells chimed in. As none of them struck the district, however, and no light was visible, the Firemen, after chasing half over the city, gave up the job and went home. We did not learn the origin of the alarm.

PAINE FESTIVAL.—This evening will be celebrated at Concert Hall, the 120th anniversary of the birthday of THOMAS PAINE. The Committee have made arrangements to make this an attractive entertainment. Good music has been engaged for the occasion, and the Festival will conclude with a dance.

HOLLAND'S INSURANCE AGENCY.—We invite attention to Mr. HOLLAND's card in our advertising columns. He is agent for a number of the best Insurance Companies at the East and is prompt and accommodating in business matters. His rooms are at No. 5 Martin's Block.

A Rare Chance.

WE offer for sale, on account of ill health of the owner, one of the best and most profitable business stands in the beautiful and thriving city of Monroe, Wisconsin. The stores are in the immediate neighborhood of the railroad depot; one containing a full and general assortment of all kinds of Groceries, Provisions, Boots and Shoes, Fancy Articles, etc., and the other, a general assortment of Wines and Liquors.

Since the business has been established it has enjoyed a very liberal patronage, and has, at present, more than five hundred steady well paying customers.

As the whole will be sold at a very reasonable price, and on easy conditions, any one who wants to engage in business can make no better investment than the above.

Also in the same place 30 valuable building lots, all in the vicinity of the railroad depot.

Also a farm of 40 acres, all improved, two miles south of the city of Monroe, at $35 an acre. We have also for sale, or to exchange for dry goods, ready-made clothing, boots, shoes, etc., four beautiful and valuable building lots in the fast go-ahead city of Beaver Dam—one of the best inland business places in the state. The lots are situated on Spring Street in the vicinity of the Empire Mills and the Baraboo and Beaver Dam R. R. Depot. Title perfect.

Also one lot 165 by 52, on front street, with a new frame house 26 by 18, cellar, cistern, stable, etc. The house will rent for $100 a year. The same will be sold at a very low price and on very easy conditions; also in the beautiful and romantic village of Milton, Rock County, the well-known tavern-stand, known as the "Du Lac House," with all the appurtenances, barn, stables, buildings, etc., at a good bargain.

Improved and unimproved farms of every description, and in all parts of the State; building lots in every Ward in the City of Milwaukee.

As we received advices from our Agent in Germany of numerous emigrants arriving this spring, land owners will find it to their advantage to give us their list of lands for sale, as early as possible. We are now ready to locate lands in any County of the State, to the best advantage.

All business connected with the General Land and Real Estate Agency will be attended to, confidentially and faithfully. L. STANTON & CO.,

PINNEY YOUNGS' PATENT SAWING MACHINES.

PATENTED JANUARY 30, 1855.—REISSUED OCT. 9, 1855.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY, That we purchased the first Siding Mill built by Pinney Youngs, of Milwaukee, and that we have run the same Machine at our Mills at Bay de Noque, (Mich.) the past two years, and that it has exceeded our expectations. We have no hesitation in saying that it will cut Two Thousand Feet, superficial measure, per hour, and upon a trial of twelve hours we cut 32,184 feet, superficial measure, of Flooring and Siding.
N. LUDINGTON & CO.

Milwaukee, Sept. 15th, 1856.

This is to Certify, That we have used one of Pinney Youngs' Patent Sawing Machines, or Siding Mills, for about one year, and find it the most perfect Machine we have ever seen. It is easily kept in order. We have expended but a shillings for repairs on it as yet.

We have never seen any Machine of the kind that will in any way compare with this. It will cut nearly or quite double the amount of lumber in the same time of any other mill we have ever examined.

The man that runs it has offered to bet one thousand dollars he could saw in this Siding Mill Fifty Thousand Feet of Lumber within twenty-four hours—The lumber sawed in this mill is of universally even thickness, which is not the case with any other we have seen.

We really would not exchange our Machine for any other ten machines of any other Patent we ever saw, for our own use.

Algoma, August 30th, 1856. BRAND & CO.

Messrs. PINNEY YOUNGS & CO.: CHICAGO, August 18th, 1856.

Gents—We have in use, in our mill at Pensaukie, Green Bay, two of your Siding Machines, and find them to answer our expectations in all respects. We prefer them to any we have ever used, or of which we have any knowledge. From the report of our Superintendent, we learn that one of your Machines cut during the week ending July 12th, 155,555 feet of Lumber—mostly fencing and flooring—being about 26,000 feet every twenty-four hours. For rapidity and smoothness of sawing, as well as durability of construction, we think it cannot be equalled by any other Machine now in use.

Yours, truly, F. H. GARRISON & CO.

The British mail steamer arrived at Aspinwall, on 19th, from Greytown, which place she left the day previous. She brought twenty-five of Walker's men, who were transfered to the steamer Grenada, which left running for Greytown to receive the fillibusters brought out by the Texas and James Adger, and convey them to New Orleans.

Walker had evacuated Rivas and was at St. Georges, surrounded by the Allies, who offered him terms to surrender; and, as he was cut off from his supplies, it was hourly expected that his followers would surrender.

MR. AND MRS. L. S. R. DE CRETY, from PARIS, for four years past instructors in foreign languages in Milwaukee, have the honor to inform the public that they will form classes in the French, Italian and Spanish Languages on the 1st of September next. The course of instruction will be according to the age and intelligence of the pupils, and the classes kept entirely separate, their house being arranged with that view.

Gentlemen and ladies who begin to speak either of these languages, can receive lessons in Reading and Conversation, Mr. De Crety furnishing books of the best French authors. Those too wishing to learn vocal music in either of those languages, will find a competent music teacher in the establishment.

MILWAUKEE, - - WISCONSIN.

THE proprietors of the Milwaukee Commercial College would respectfully announce that the liberal patronage that has been extended to this deservedly popular enterprise has led them to extend the field of study, so that it will embrace every branch of a thorough Commercial Education. As there are no classes formed in any department of study—(thereby enabling the student to enter any time, each one receiving separate instructions)—the student, on entering, is placed in the Counting Room, with actual transactions to work from, thus making his education not merely theoretical, but practical to the last degree. The Commercial Course comprises Book Keeping by Double Entry, in its various forms, as adapted to Wholesale, Retail, Commission, Manufacturing, Custom House, Banking, Railroading, in stock partnership, and compound Company business; Commercial Calculations in per centage, Exchange, Bank and Regular Discounts, Averaging, Accounts by Simple and Compound Equations, &c., according to the most approved methods; Commercial Correspondence, including account sales, account currents, drafts, bills of exchange, &c., &c.

Also, a perfect system of detecting Counterfeit Bank Notes, will be given to each student.

A good Hand Writing guaranteed to every person completing a full course.

The Reading Room will be supplied with the various Daily and other papers and publications.

Particular attention will be given to Ladies who may wish to acquire a business education, and separate rooms have been beautifully fitted up for their use.

Merchants and other business men are informed that, at any time, by a few days' notice, they can be supplied with competent Accountants, and young men will be assisted in procuring situations when desired.

Every Man his own Miller.
PORTABLE CAST IRON GRAIN MILL.
Young America Improved and Perfected.

THE above mill was patented by Charles Leavitt, of Ill., Feb. 27th, 1855. This mill took the first premium at the Ohio State Fair, 1855, over all other mills, and during the fairs of the fall of 1856, the first premiums over many others in the State Fairs of Ohio, New York, Tennessee, Michigan and Minnesota, also, at the County Fairs of the following Counties of Ohio and Indiana, viz: Guernsey, Crawford, Logan, Medina, Ashland, Wayne, Knox, Montgomery Clark, Erie, Lorain, Richland, Plymouth district, Chester, Frederick. In Indiana, Tippecanoe, Jefferson, Wayne, Fayette, Shelby, Jennings, Warren and Fountain.
Farmers, Saw Mill owners, Livery Stable men and all others feeding stock of any kind are invited to examine the merits and superior advantages of the above mill.
The Young America will grind as much corn in the cob, shelled corn, oats, barley, and all other grains for stock as any mill of the same size and with much less draft.
What we claim is great strength, durability and simplicity, being so simple that a child can learn to grind with safety.
In the next we claim the small expense to renew the grinding parts of the mill, and the ease with which the grinders are put on the mill, at a cost of not over three dollars, which makes it superior and more economical than any other mill. The grinding parts of the above mill are made of the hardest of cast iron, as hard in fact as cast steel can be tempered. Each set will grind from 5000 to 10,000 bushels of grain, with proper usage. Besides the set of grinders on the mill, an extra set will be sent with each mill sold, making it equal to two common mills. When found necessary to change the grinders, almost any one can do it in twenty minutes.
As a proof of the estimation in which the Young America is held in Ohio, we would state that during the fall, winter and spring of 1855-56, 2500 were made and sold in Ohio, at Zanesville, by Douglas, Smith & Co., Hall & Allen of Mansfield, Eldridge & Faucener of Cincinnati, and at New Philadelphia.
At this time there is not less than 200 being sold every week in Ohio, at retail, besides those sold in other states east and west.
The above mill is being manufactured and can be furnished at wholesale and retail, from the Wisconsin Iron Works of A. J. Langworthy, on the water power in the City of Milwaukee. The mill is warranted perfect in all respects.
Dealers in agricultural implements and machines, of the State of Wisconsin, are requested to call and make arrangements for the sale of the above mills, to whom a liberal discount will be made on the retail price; also any others wishing to engage in a profitable business. Would call attention to good men who have teams, in any part of the State, who would peddle the mills through the country. Four can be taken on a wagon at a time—liberal arrangements would be made with them.
The above mill will grind from 8 to 20 bushels of grain per hour, in accordance with the kind and condition of the grain.
Price of the Young America $35—ready to hitch to and warranted to grind as fast as any mill of the same size when properly worked, and with less draft.
For further information address or see the undersigned, sole owner of the right to the State of Wisconsin.
For sale by   W. HARROLD SMITH.

BOERHAVE'S
HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND
FEVER AND AGUE,
And the various affections consequent upon a disordered
STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in many instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.
This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.
It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.
NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.
CAUTION!
The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

MEDICAL.

R. R. R.

THE MEDICAL TRINITY.

EACH of Radway's three Remedies possesses special curative powers over certain diseases; and when either the Ready Relief, Renovating Resolvent, or the Regulators, are used for the certain class of diseases they are specially designed for, the system undergoes a rapid transformation from its diseased condition to a healthy and happy state of existence.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

This remedy is to be used externally, or taken internally, for all pains, aches and infirmities. In a few minutes it stops the most torturing pains, subdues all inflammations and cures the worst cases of Rheumatism, Lumbago, Gout, Paralysis, Neuralgia, Tooth-ache, Burns, Sprains, Strains, &c. It restores the lame, infirm and crippled to soundness and vigor. It is likewise a certain cure and preventive for Fever and Ague, Scarlet Fever, Smallpox, Croup, Hoarseness, Colds and Influenza. Whenever you feel any unpleasant or painful symptoms, take a dose of Radway's Ready Relief, or apply it to the parts where the pain is located; in a short time you will enjoy ease and comfort.

Bear in mind, there is no pain so severe but that Radway's Ready Relief will stop, and no system so crippled with infirmities but that the R. R. R. Remedies will restore to sound and vigorous health.

RADWAY'S REGULATORS.

The discovery of these wonderful pills establishes a new era in purgatives, and a new principle in the science of medicine. In taking these pills no griping pains or sickness at stomach is experienced; they operate naturally, leaving the bowels, liver and other organs in a natural condition.

They insure those who take them a good appetite and a healthy digestion.

Each pill that is taken gives new life to the blood; they purify it, take from it all impure deposits and equalize its circulation.

One or two doses of Radway's Regulators will entirely remove all distressing symptoms of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Nervousness, Indigestion, Costiveness, Liver Complaint, Billiousness, Melancholy, and will cure all organic diseases, either in man or woman. Ladies troubled with irregularities or weakening discharges, may rely upon a prompt cure and regular periods if Radway's Regulators are taken.

PICTURE OF HEALTH AND BEAUTY.

A few doses of Radway's Regulators will insure a clear, fair, pure and healthy skin and a rosy complexion. They give to those troubled with weak dull, yellow eyes, a clear and brilliant appearance. Radway's pills give a natural beauty to the face, eyes and head; and the use of the Ready Relief as a wash for the teeth and an aromatic for the breath, will change the most disgusting foul breath to sweetness, and the blackest teeth to Parian whiteness.

One to ten of Radway's Regulators is a dose; they never do injury, but always do good.

CONGESTIVE DISEASES, APOPLEXY, TERMINATION OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

Persons of full blooded plethoric habits are more subject to congestive diseases, headaches, rush of blood to the head, than those of a lean habit; bleeding in these cases is highly detrimental, nor does this practice lessen the danger; the difficulty is not caused by too much blood, but by its disturbed circulation, and the irregular action of the heart. Now a dose of Radway's Regulators will correct all these difficulties—they will correct the action of the heart, liver, and all other organs to a natural and regular action, and will immediately equalize the circulation of the blood. Mere purging in these cases will only aggravate the disease.

Radway's Regulators not only regulate the bowels, by which all diseased and injurious matter is purged from the body, but they control the whole system, and, hence, each and every organ, the heart, brain, liver, nerves, bowels, skin, pancreas, bladder, kidneys, stomach, lungs, throat, blood, and every tissue in the whole organization, to a healthy and regular action. They infuse new life throughout the whole system; their action is not confined to any local part of the stomach, like common pills, but they search out diseased action wherever it may be hidden, and expel all diseased humors and deposits from the body. In a few hours after taking a dose of these life erecting pills you feel refreshed and invigorated from head to foot. We have known the dispirited and melancholy take a dose of Radway's Regulators just to feel good—they make one feel so happy.

RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT.

Cures Humors, Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Ulcers, Nodes, Tumors, Fever Sores, Skin Eruptions, Blotches, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Gout, Dropsy, Syphilis, Consumption, Apoplexy, &c.; and all constitutional and chronic diseases, either inherited by hereditary transmission, or inoculated by exposure or otherwise.

There is no remedy in the world that will work such miraculous cures in old diseases as Radway's Resolvent. It changes the whole human body—reproduces new and healthy blood.

Bleeding from the lungs—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will, in a few minutes, check Hemorrhage from the lungs or throat. In cases where the patient coughs up clots of blood or pus streaked with blood, Radway's Resolvent will soon remove the difficulty.

Sarah Hammond, of 193 East Thirty-Second st., had a bad cough for two years, she coughed up sometimes half a pint of blood during the night. She was cured in seven days by the Relief and Resolvent.

A sore leg of 21 years cured in three weeks by Radway's Relief. Mr. T. H. Kilgo, a merchant of high standing in Dahlonega, Ga., says:—"That a gentleman who, for 21 years, had been afflicted with a sore leg, that resisted every kind of treatment, was effectually cured in three weeks by Radway's Ready Relief, Resolvent and Regulators."

GENERAL COMPLAINTS.

If you catch a sudden cold, get a sore throat, or become afflicted with influenza, a dose of Radway's Regulators, and an application of the Ready Relief, will free you from all pain and uneasiness. In a few minutes after the Relief is applied no soreness will trouble you. If afflicted with headache, either nervous or from foul stomach, Radway's Ready Relief, and a dose of Regulators, will remove all pain from the head, and restore health to the nervous and afflicted.

Radway's Ready Relief and Regulators always cures Dyspepsia in its most distressing forms, and nervousness with all its horrors.

WHOOPING COUGH.—Thousands of cases of Whooping Cough have been cured in a few days by the Resolvent and Relief, and if the Whooping Cough is prevalent in the neighborhood, those who take half a teaspoonful of Ready Relief in a little water, once or twice per day, will never catch it. Radway's Relief destroys the infection of the "Whooping Cough."

TOBACCO CHEWERS.—Those who have become reduced by the effect of tobacco, or the indulgence in spirituous liquors, who feel the horrors of incapacity, weakness, sterility, and the infirmities which a fast and intemperate, luxurious and lustful course of life inflicts upon its victims, will find relief from these horrors, and sure restoration to health, strength and vigor, by the use of Radway's Relief, Regulators and Resolvent.

HEALTHY BREAD!
MADE WITH
JAS. PYLE'S DIETETIC SALERATUS

THIS article is deprived of the caustic impurities, so well known to exist in all common saleratus, thereby dealing destruction to thousands not aware of its injurious qualities. So destructive is it to the constitution of children, that where they and the parents have been regular consumers of Saleratus Bread, there is but little chance for recovery from infantile or contagious diseases. In this way thousands meet with premature Death—the sad reality of which is forcibly demonstrated, in the mortality among children, in the New England and other States, where warm bread and cake is so generally consumed.

JAS. PYLE'S DIETETIC SALERATUS

Is of vast importance to the public, and is rapidly coming into use. Being deprived of all caustic impurities, it is quite as harmless as flour. In point of economy it excels, having powerful raising properties, and is altogether superior to Baking Soda. No intelligent lady will dispense with it after trying it.

It is packed in pound packages, each bearing the name of James Pyle, without which it is not genuine. For sale by John Furlong & Co., C. A. Folsom, Chapin & Gregory, Milwaukee; Elldridge, Shoemaker & Co., Madison; E. H. Jones & Bro., Fond du Lac, Wis; A. Grove & Co., Chicago.   JAMES PYLE,
